

567—22.208(455B) Suspension, termination, and revocation of voluntary operating permits.

22.208(1) Permits may be terminated, modified, revoked or reissued for cause. The following examples shall be considered cause for the suspension, modification, revocation, or reissuance of a voluntary permit:

a. The director has reasonable cause to believe that the permit was obtained by fraud or misrepresentation.

b. The person applying for the permit failed to disclose a material fact required by the permit application form or the rules applicable to the permit, of which the applicant had or should have had knowledge at the time the application was submitted.

c. The terms and conditions of the permit have been or are being violated.

d. The permittee has failed to pay an administrative, civil or criminal penalty for violations of the permit.

22.208(2) If the director suspends, terminates or revokes a voluntary permit under this rule, the notice of such action shall be served on the applicant or permittee by certified mail, return receipt requested. The notice shall include a statement detailing the grounds for the action sought, and the proceeding shall in all other respects comply with the requirements of rule 561—7.16(17A,455A).
