

185—16.43 (123) Extension of credit and prepaid accounts. An industry member is prohibited from extending credit on the sale of alcoholic liquor, beer, wine coolers, or spirit coolers to a retailer. An industry member may extend credit to a retailer on the sale of wine for not more than 30 days from the date of the sale. An industry member engaged in the manufacturing or wholesaling of beer is prohibited from extending credit to a retailer on the sale of disposable or commemorative glassware. An industry member engaged in the manufacturing or wholesaling of wine may extend not more than 30 days' credit to a retailer on the sale of durable or disposable glassware.

16.43(1) An industry member may establish prepaid accounts in which retailers deposit a sum of money in the hands of the industry member to pay for future purchases of alcoholic beverages products, although a retailer is not required to purchase any quota of alcoholic liquor, wine or beer. The industry member may not hold the money so deposited as “security” for future payment of a debt. The industry member must transfer the amount of the invoice from the retailer’s prepaid account each time that the industry member makes a sale and a delivery to the retail establishment. An industry member is not required to establish separate escrow accounts for prepaid accounts; however, the industry member is responsible for accurately and honestly accounting for the funds so held. A retailer may withdraw the money placed in a prepaid account at any time. An industry member is prohibited from utilizing prepaid accounts to require a retailer to take and dispose of any quota of alcoholic liquor, wine or beer.

16.43(2) Reserved.
