

129—2.14 (8B,17A,22) Other groups of records. This rule describes groups of records maintained by the office other than record systems as defined in rule 129—2.1(8B,17A,22). These records are routinely available to the public. However, the office's files of these records may contain confidential information. In addition, the records listed in rule 129—2.13(8B,17A,22) may contain information about individuals. All records are stored on paper and in automated data processing systems unless otherwise noted.

2.14(1) Rule-making records. Rule-making records are official documents executed during the promulgation of office rules and public comments. Rule-making records may contain information about individuals making written or oral comments on proposed rules. This information is collected pursuant to Iowa Code section 17A.4. This information is not generally stored in an automated data processing system, although rule-making dockets may be found on the office's Web site.

2.14(2) Rule-making initiatives. The office maintains both paper and electronic records on rule-making initiatives in accordance with Executive Order Numbers 8 and 9 signed September 14, 1999.

2.14(3) Board and commission records. Agendas, minutes, and materials presented to boards and commissions within the office are available from the office except those records which concern closed sessions and are exempt from disclosure under Iowa Code section 21.5(4) or which are otherwise confidential by law. These records may contain information about individuals who participate in meetings. This information is collected pursuant to Iowa Code section 21.3. These records may also be stored on audiotapes. This information is not stored in an automated data processing system, although minutes and other information may be found on the office's Web site.

2.14(4) Publications. News releases, annual reports, project reports, office newsletters, and other publications are available from the office. Office news releases, project reports, and newsletters may contain information about individuals, including office staff or members of office councils or committees. This information is not stored in an automated data processing system, although some office publications may be found on the office's Web site.

2.14(5) Appeal decisions and advisory opinions. All final orders, decisions and opinions are open to the public except for information that is confidential according to rule 129—2.5(8B,17A,22) or subrule 2.12(2). These records, collected under the authority of Iowa Code chapter 8B, may contain confidential information about individuals.

2.14(6) Published materials or manuals. The office uses many legal and technical publications in its work. The public may inspect these publications upon request. Some of these materials may be protected by copyright laws.

2.14(7) Mailing lists and contact lists. The office maintains lists including names, mailing addresses, and telephone numbers of state employees, commission members, officials in government of other states, and members of the general public. These lists may be used for distribution of informational material, such as newsletters, policy directives, or educational bulletins. These lists are also used to provide contacts for coordination of services or as reference information sources.

2.14(8) Authorized user lists. The office maintains a list of persons authorized to use the office's online services.

2.14(9) Bid/purchasing process. The office maintains records of specifications, proposals, bid documents, awards, contracts, agreements, leases, performance bonds, requisitions, purchase orders, printing orders, supply orders, and correspondence.

2.14(10) Project files. The office maintains plans, specifications, contracts, studies, drawings, photos, requests for services, lease/rental files, 28E agreements, and facilities records.

2.14(11) Property/equipment files. The office maintains records of inventory, assignments, distribution, maintenance, requests, operations, shipping/receiving reports, and adjustments.

2.14(12) Data processing files. Data processing files include operations logs, database user requests, job number maintenance/updates, data entry format books, integrated data dictionaries, computer output form designations, system software, hardware/software configurations, problem determination/resolution records, and incident reports.

2.14(13) Administrative records. Administrative records include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a.* Reports: weekly, monthly, annual, biennial, statistical, analysis, activity.
- b.* Correspondence: public, interagency, internal.
- c.* Policies and procedures.
- d.* Organizational charts or tables of authorized positions.
- e.* Memberships: professional/technical organizations.
- f.* Budget and financial records.
- g.* Accounting records: accounts receivable, accounts payable, receipts, invoices, claims, vouchers, office billings.
- h.* Requisitions of equipment and supplies.
- i.* Time sheets.
- j.* Purchasing documents and records.

2.14(14) Legislative files. Legislative files include pending bills, enrolled bills, legislative proposals, and copies of amendments.

2.14(15) Printing files. Printing files include print requisitions, plates, negatives, samples, typesetting, artwork, and production logs.

2.14(16) Waivers and variances. Requests for waivers and variances, office proceedings and rulings on such requests, and reports prepared for the administrative rules review committee and others.

2.14(17) General correspondence, reciprocity agreements with other states, and cooperative agreements and memorandums of understanding with other agencies.

2.14(18) All other records. Records are open if not exempted from disclosure by law.
