

641—4.4(136A) Regional genetic consultation service (RGCS). This program provides comprehensive genetic and genomic services statewide through outreach clinics.

4.4(1) Provision of comprehensive genetic and genomic services. The department will contract with the division of medical genetics and genomics within the department of pediatrics at the University of Iowa to provide genetic and genomic health care and education outreach services for individuals and families within Iowa.

4.4(2) The University of Iowa Health Care Medical Center under the control of the state board of regents shall not receive indirect costs from state funds appropriated for this program.

[ARC 9319C, IAB 5/28/25, effective 8/1/25]