

571—12.27(321G,321I,462A,483A) Termination of certification. Any certified instructor has the right, at any time, to voluntarily terminate the instructor's certification. If a certified instructor voluntarily terminates the certification or the instructor's certification is terminated by the department, the instructor must return to the department the certification card and all materials that were provided to the individual.

[ARC 8816B, IAB 6/2/10, effective 7/7/10]