

641—193.2(272C) Purpose. The impaired practitioner review committee evaluates, assists, monitors and, as necessary, makes reports to the licensing board on the recovery or rehabilitation of practitioners who self-report impairments. These rules do not apply to an impaired practitioner review committee governed by other administrative rule or statute.

[ARC 8799B, IAB 6/2/10, effective 7/7/10]