

657—13.16(155A) Utilization of proprietary bag and vial systems. Sterility storage and beyond-use times for attached and activated container pairs of drug products for intravascular administration shall follow manufacturers' instructions for handling and storage.