

441—95.18(17A) Right of appeal.

95.18(1) Under this chapter, an administrative appeal pursuant to 441—Chapter 2506 will be limited to the following issues:

a. A person is not entitled to a support payment in full or in part because of the date of collection, as provided under rule 441—95.6(17A), or a dispute based on the date of collection has not been acted on in a timely manner.

b. A termination in services has occurred as provided in rule 441—95.7(252B).

95.18(2) A hearing will not be granted under 441—Chapter 2506 when an appellant has a complaint about child support services collections actions other than those described in this rule. This includes the collection of an annual fee for child support services as specified in Iowa Code chapter 252B.
