

481—659.6(148,272C) Disciplinary sanction. The board may restrict or rescind a physician's authority to supervise a physician associate as part of a disciplinary sanction following a contested case proceeding if the reason for the disciplinary action impacts the ability of the physician to supervise a physician associate. The board shall notify the board of physician associates when it takes a disciplinary action against a physician's license that affects the physician's authority to supervise a physician associate.
