

875—71.4(89A) Registration of conveyances. The owner or authorized agent of each operable conveyance not previously registered shall register the conveyance on or before December 31, 1982. An application to install a new conveyance shall constitute registration for all conveyances installed on or after January 1, 1983. All registrations shall be submitted to the commissioner on forms available from the division of labor services.