

671—4.1(8A) Proposal of government information policies, standards, and guidelines. An agency staff member or a member of the public may propose a topic to be developed into a government information policy, standard, or guideline by contacting the state records commission through the state archives and records bureau. A proposal may include a draft government information policy, standard, or guideline.

[ARC 0401D, IAB 6/24/26, effective 7/29/26]