

199—34.1(476) Statement of purpose. A public utility which engages in a systematic marketing effort, other than on an incidental or casual basis, to promote the availability of a nonutility service from the public utility shall allow competitors access to certain services.