

199—34.2(476) Definition—nonutility service. “Nonutility service” as defined in this chapter means the sale, lease, or other conveyance of commercial and residential gas or electric appliances, interior lighting systems and fixtures, or heating, ventilating, or air-conditioning systems and component parts or the servicing, repair, or maintenance of the equipment.