

561—10.7(17A,455A) Administrative deadlines. When the rule from which a waiver or variance is sought establishes administrative deadlines, the department shall balance the special individual circumstances of the petitioner with the overall goal of uniform treatment of all persons governed by the particular rule.