

701—7.9 (17A) Identifying details. Any person may, at any time, petition the administrative law judge to delete identifying details concerning the person from any document relating to any proceedings as defined in rule 701—7.1(17A), prior to disclosure to members of the public.

If the petition concerns information which is not a part of a contested case, the petition shall be in the form of a request to delete identifying details; if part of a contested case, the petition shall be in the form of a motion to delete identifying details. All motions to delete shall conform to subrule 7.17(3).

The motion or request shall contain the following:

1. The name of the person requesting deletion and the docket number of the proceeding, if applicable.

2. The legal basis for their request for deletion; such as, release of the material would be a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy or the material is a trade secret or of advantage to competitors. A corporation may not claim an unwarranted invasion of privacy.

3. A precise description of the document, report or other material in the possession of the department from which the deletion is sought, and a precise description of the information to be deleted. If deletion is sought from more than one document, each document and the materials sought to be deleted from it shall be listed in separate paragraphs. Also contained in each separate paragraph shall be a statement of the legal basis for the deletion requested in that paragraph, such as, the material sought to be deleted is a trade secret or its release would give advantage to competitors and serve no public purpose.

4. An affidavit in support of deletion must accompany each motion or request. The affidavit must be sworn to by a person familiar with the facts asserted within it and shall contain a clear and concise explanation of the facts justifying deletion, not merely the legal basis for deletion.

5. All affidavits shall contain a general statement that the information sought to be deleted is not available to the public from any source or combination of sources, direct or indirect, and if the grounds for deletion is that the release of information would give advantage to competitors, the general statement that the release would serve no public purpose.

A ruling on a request or motion shall not become the final decision of the department until 30 days after the date of the ruling unless there is an appeal to, or review on motion of, the director within 30 days of the date of the ruling.
