

27—12.40(161C) Appropriations. Resource enhancement and protection program, soil and water enhancement account funds are allocated to the water protection fund. Each year's allocation of water protection funds is divided equally between the water quality protection account and the water protection practices account until the water quality protection account has received $1 million. The balance of funds is deposited in the water protection practices account.