

481—325.6(103A) Review of application for certification. Upon receipt of an application for certification or recertification, staff of the building code bureau shall review the application and recommend approval or denial to the building code commissioner. If an application is approved, the certificate shall be issued to the applicant. If an application is denied, the applicant shall be notified and given an explanation of the reason or reasons for denial. Denials of applications by the building code commissioner may be appealed according to the contested case provisions of 7—Chapter 2506. An appeal may be filed as a request for contested case proceeding as provided in rule 7—2506.4(17A). An appeal must be filed within 30 days of the date of the denial.
