

481—980.5(155) Provisional license. A provisional license may be issued to an administrator appointed on a temporary basis to perform the duties of a nursing home administrator. A provisional license is considered a temporary appointment, and the person appointed may serve as an administrator for a period of time not to exceed 24 months in an entire career. The 24 months in service are not required to be consecutive; however, a new application is required for each appointment period. It is the responsibility of the approved provisional administrator to maintain documentation of the actual dates the administrator serves in that capacity.

980.5(1) The limited circumstances under which the request for a provisional appointment will be granted include the inability of the licensed administrator to perform the administrator's duties, the death of the licensed administrator, or circumstances that prevent the immediate transfer of the licensed administrator's duties to another licensed administrator. A provisional license will not be issued to a licensed nursing home administrator.

980.5(2) Application for a provisional license shall be in writing on forms prescribed by the board. Applicants will meet the following minimum qualifications:

- a.* Be at least 20 years of age.
- b.* Be employed on a full-time basis of no less than 40 hours per week to perform the duties of the nursing home administrator.
- c.* Be knowledgeable about the nursing home administrator's domains of practice, including resident care, human resources, finance, physical environment, and leadership and management.
- d.* Be without a history of unprofessional conduct or denial of or disciplinary action against a license to practice nursing home administration or any other profession by any lawful licensing authority for reasons outlined in 481—Chapter 982.
- e.* Provide evidence to establish that the provisional appointment will not exceed the lifetime maximum period of 24 calendar months in duration. For any period in which the applicant previously served as a provisional administrator, written employment verification or a written attestation of the facility owner, chief operating officer, or board officer will satisfy this requirement.
- f.* Provide evidence that the provisional appointment complies with the requirements in 481—subrule 58.8(4). A written attestation of the facility owner, chief operating officer, or board officer will satisfy this requirement.

980.5(3) Applications for an extension of the time period for the provisional appointment within the same facility do not require the payment of an additional fee, as long as all other requirements stated in this rule are met.

980.5(4) The board expressly reserves the right to withdraw approval of a provisional appointment. Withdrawal of approval will be based on information or circumstances warranting such action. The provisional administrator will be notified of the withdrawal of approval in writing by certified mail.
