

681—13.19(262) Authority to order persons off the campus. Any person violating university regulations may have the person's permission to remain in or on university premises revoked. A person who does not voluntarily leave, or who immediately returns, is subject to arrest for trespassing under state law. A person who has engaged in serious or repeat violations of university regulations, who has committed crimes, or who has endangered other persons may be banned by the director of public safety or the director's designee from all or part of the campus. Such orders shall be issued in writing. Any person who is subject to such an order may appeal such action to the vice president for business and finance, who shall promptly handle the appeal. A person who violates such orders is subject to arrest and prosecution for trespassing.
