

871—24.33(96) Labor disputes.

24.33(1) Definition. As used in sections 96.5(3) “b”(1) and 96.5(4), the term labor dispute shall mean any controversy concerning terms, tenure, or conditions of employment, or concerning the association or representation of persons in negotiating, fixing, maintaining, changing, or seeking to arrange terms or conditions of employment regardless of whether the disputants stand in the proximate relation of employer and employee. An individual shall be disqualified for benefits if unemployment is due to a labor dispute.

24.33(2) Initial requirements—workforce development center.

a. As soon as the workforce development center has knowledge of a labor dispute or work stoppage in its administrative area, a report on Form 68-0535, Labor Dispute Report, shall be sent to the administrative office of the department of workforce development, attention: legal counsel, unemployment insurance services division, advising of the labor dispute or work stoppage.

b. If the labor dispute or work stoppage is terminated before the report is transmitted to the legal counsel, unemployment insurance services division, the information concerning the termination of the dispute and the date of the worker’s return to work must also be entered on Form 68-0535.

c. When the labor dispute or work stoppage is terminated subsequent to the filing of the initial Form 68-0535, the legal counsel, unemployment insurance services division, shall be notified of the termination and return to work dates.

d. In those instances where an association represents a group of employers, include the names and addresses of the employers who are involved in the labor dispute in your report. Include also the name and address of the association and the name of the association official who can furnish information about the work stoppage.

e. In taking initial claims in which there is a labor dispute, the workforce development center will complete an initial application for unemployment, Form 60-0330, Application for Job Placement Assistance and/or Job Insurance, in the normal manner and will also include the union name and local union number.

f. If a claim notice is inadvertently returned by the employer to the workforce development center stating there is a labor dispute, the protest with the postmarked envelope attached shall be transmitted to the unemployment insurance service center.

g. If there is a work stoppage at the premises of an employer and it is a known fact that there has not been a union and that at present there is no union representation nor any attempt by a union to organize the workers of the plant, a statement must be taken from each individual claiming benefits.

i. Statements from each individual claiming benefits will be taken whenever the work stoppage is considered as a nonunion stoppage, meaning no union representation at the premises of the employer. In such cases, each individual’s statement would become a part of the evidence submitted to the administrative office of the department of workforce development.

j. When there is a termination of the work stoppage, or if the issues have not been resolved and all workers returned to work, a report must be made to the legal counsel, unemployment insurance services division. The report will include the:

(1) Date on which an agreement was reached on the issues which caused the work stoppage.

(2) Date on which the workers returned to work, or a schedule as to how the workers will return to work.

k. The requirements in subrules 24.33(1) and 24.33(2) will cover the establishment and termination reports of the work stoppage and give the information necessary for the benefits bureau to investigate the work stoppage when claims are filed on which a protest is made that the claimant is involved in a work stoppage.

l. During the period of a labor dispute, the claims involved in the labor dispute are processed as though no separation from the employer had occurred. Therefore, if an individual is still unemployed after the termination of the labor dispute, such individual has either been laid off, voluntarily left, or has been discharged from employment, and an additional claim must be taken if the individual continues in claim status.

m. When the employer or the union requests advice and information pertaining to what action should be taken in regard to the labor dispute, the workforce development center, at that time, should obtain all the information possible from the caller for inclusion in the labor dispute report to the unemployment insurance services division.

n. The employer will receive separate notices of claim filing for each claimant and shall make any protest in the appropriate section on Form 65-5317, Notice of Claim. The employer will receive a copy of the decision which may be appealed.

o. Form 65-5317, Notice of Claim Filing, will be used by the employer to report total unemployment due to strike, lockout or other labor dispute.

p. Employer shall use Form 60-0154, Notice of Separation or Refusal of Work, or the electronic version of that form, to report separations from work by employees for reasons of voluntary leaving, misconduct and job refusal. Form 60-0154 shall not be used by employers to report labor disputes because the document is not designed for that type of an employment separation or work refusal.

24.33(3) Initial determination.

a. In any case in which the payment or denial of benefits will be determined by the provisions of Iowa Code section 96.5(4), the representative of the unemployment insurance services division shall promptly review the evidence submitted, and such additional evidence as may be required, and shall make a decision upon the issues involved under that subsection.

b. The representative of the unemployment insurance services division shall promptly notify all interested parties to the claim of the decision. Said parties shall have ten days, from the date of mailing the decision to the last known address of record, to appeal the decision.
