

441—231.11(231E,633) Termination or limitation. Either a local office or the state office may seek the termination or limitation of a local office's duties under circumstances including:

1. Public guardianship services are no longer needed or do not benefit the protected person or client;
2. The protected person's or client's assets allow for hiring a paid guardianship or conservatorship service provider;
3. A conflict of interest or the appearance of a conflict of interest arises;
4. The state or a local office lacks adequate staff or financial resources;
5. The protected person or client moves outside the state or outside the local office's service area;
6. Public guardianship is no longer the last resort for assistance;
7. The contract between the state office and a local office is terminated by either party and there is no other local office that can be appointed as a successor;
8. Termination of the program by law; or
9. Other circumstances that indicate a need for termination or limitation.
