

681—13.11 (262) Access to facilities. University grounds and facilities are generally open to public access except as provided below:

13.11(1) Persons may not enter buildings or facilities without authorization when the buildings or facilities are locked, when signs indicate they are closed to the public or when they are closed to the public for specific events.

13.11(2) The following facilities and grounds are restricted areas. Access requires express permission of the relevant building supervisor, superintendent or other person in charge of the facility: individual residences or dwellings; research laboratories or facilities; farms and associated buildings; animal storage and confinement facilities; utility and maintenance closets; mechanical rooms; utility facilities; utility tunnels; storage areas; hazardous materials waste storage and handling areas; marked or fenced construction areas; institutional food preparation areas; private offices; workrooms; shops; areas where medical, psychological or other consultation takes place; radio and television studios; intercollegiate athletics competition facilities; or areas which bear signs indicating that access is restricted. The university has leased some of its property and facilities to other parties for use related to university purposes (for example, the Ames Laboratory and the National Soil Tilth Laboratory). Such areas are not open to public use except as provided by the lessee of the property or facility. The buildings at the Iowa State Center (Scheman Continuing Education Building, Stephens Auditorium and Fisher Theater) and the Iowa State University Research Park are managed by separate organizations that regulate the use of these facilities and property.

13.11(3) Access to grounds and facilities may be denied when they are closed to the public for special university events, or when access would conflict with another approved use of the grounds or facilities. The university may limit or control access to areas of the campus for ceremonial events and celebrations such as graduation and VEISHEA.

13.11(4) Unapproved uses of university grounds and facilities by the general public are subject to preemption for university activities, for use by recognized student and campus organizations and for use by students, faculty and staff for purposes related to the university's mission.

13.11(5) Access to performances, art exhibits, museums and other exhibitions may be regulated by requirement of payment of a fee for entry. Visitors are required to abide by policies set by the various facilities.

13.11(6) Access to campus roads and parking is governed by university parking and traffic regulations, as well as signage erected upon campus roadways and parking areas.
