

281—56.2(259) Nondiscrimination. The division shall not discriminate on the basis of race, creed, color, sex, national origin, religion, duration of residency, or disability in the determination of a person's eligibility for rehabilitation services and in the provision of necessary rehabilitation services.