

281—56.4(259) Individuals who are recipients of SSD/SSI. Recipients of social security disability payments or supplemental security income payments are automatically eligible for vocational rehabilitation services and are determined automatically as being significantly disabled.