

193E—11.5(543B) Distribution of executed instruments. Upon execution of any instrument in connection with a real estate transaction, a licensee shall, as soon as practicable, deliver a legible copy of the original instrument to each of the parties thereto. It shall be the responsibility of the licensee to prepare sufficient copies of such instruments to satisfy this requirement. The broker shall retain copies for five years.