

193E—19.7(543B) Records and retention. It is the responsibility of the licensee to maintain records which support the validity of the insurance. Documentation shall be retained by the licensee for a period of three years after the license renewal date or the anniversary of the license renewal date.