

481—506.7(17A,272C) Presiding officer in a disciplinary contested case. The presiding officer in a disciplinary contested case will be the board. The board may request that an administrative law judge assist the board with initial rulings on prehearing matters. Decisions of the administrative law judge serving in this capacity are subject to the interlocutory appeal provisions of rule 481—506.24(17A). An administrative law judge may assist and advise the board at the contested case hearing.

[ARC 8080C, IAB 6/26/24, effective 7/31/24; Editorial change: IAC Supplement 9/18/24]