

189—17.13(533) Permissible investment activities.

17.13(1) Regular way settlement and delivery versus payment basis. A credit union may only contract for the purchase or sale of a security as long as the delivery of the security is by regular way settlement and the transaction is accomplished on a delivery versus payment basis.

17.13(2) Federal funds. A credit union may sell federal funds to a national bank; or to a state bank, trust company or mutual savings bank operating in accordance with Iowa law or the laws of any state where it operates a credit union office; or in banks and institutions, the accounts of which are insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation; or to credit unions, the accounts of which are insured by the National Credit Union Administration; and as long as the interest or other consideration received from the financial institution is at the market rate for federal funds transactions.

17.13(3) Investment repurchase transaction. A credit union may enter into an investment repurchase transaction so long as:

a. Any securities the credit union receives are permissible investments for federal and Iowa credit unions; the credit union, or its agent, either takes physical possession or control of the repurchase securities or is recorded as owner of them through the Federal Reserve Book Entry Securities Transfer System; the credit union, or its agent, receives a daily assessment of the securities' market value, including accrued interest; and the credit union maintains adequate margins that reflect a risk assessment of the securities and the term of the transaction; and

b. The credit union has entered into signed contracts with all approved counterparties.

17.13(4) Borrowing repurchase transaction. A credit union may enter into a borrowing repurchase transaction so long as:

a. The transaction meets the requirements of 17.13(3);

b. Any cash the credit union receives, when aggregated with all other credit union borrowings, is subject to the borrowing limit in accordance with Iowa Code section 533.15 or to any lesser amount specified by policy of the board of directors, and any investments the credit union purchases with that cash are permissible for federal credit unions; and

c. The investments referenced in 17.13(4)“b” mature no later than the maturity of the borrowing repurchase transaction.

17.13(5) Securities lending transaction. A credit union may enter into a securities lending transaction so long as:

a. The credit union receives written confirmation of the loan;

b. Any collateral the credit union receives is a legal investment for federal credit unions; the credit union, or its agent, obtains a first priority security interest in the collateral by taking physical possession or control of the collateral, or is recorded as owner of the collateral through the Federal Reserve Book Entry Securities Transfer System; and the credit union, or its agent, receives a daily assessment of the market value of the collateral, including accrued interest; and maintains adequate margin that reflects a risk assessment of the collateral and the term of the loan;

c. Any cash the credit union receives, when aggregated with all other credit union borrowings, is subject to the borrowing limit in accordance with Iowa Code section 533.15 or to any lesser amount specified by policy of the board of directors, and any investments the credit union purchases with that cash are permissible for federal credit unions and mature no later than the maturity of the transaction; and

d. The credit union has executed a written loan and security agreement with the borrower.

17.13(6) Trading securities.

a. A credit union may trade securities, including engaging in when-issued trading and pair-off transactions, so long as the credit union can show that it has sufficient resources, knowledge, systems, and procedures to handle the risks.

b. A credit union must record any security it purchases or sells for trading purposes at fair value on the trade date. The trade date is the date the credit union commits, orally or in writing, to purchase or sell a security.

c. At least monthly, the credit union must give its board of directors or investment-related committee a written report listing all purchase and sale transactions of trading securities and the resulting gain or loss on an individual basis.
