

281—79.8(256) Reevaluation of practitioner or administrator preparation programs. Every five years or at any time deemed necessary by the director, an institution shall file a written self-evaluation of its practitioner or administrator preparation programs to be followed by a team visit. Any action for continued approval or rescission of approval shall be approved by the state board.