

193F—12.2(543D) Prorating of registration fees. An applicant applying for initial or reciprocal registration or certification within 12 months from the applicant's required renewal date, pursuant to rule 193F—9.1(543D), shall pay half the required fee. An applicant applying for initial or reciprocal registration or certification more than 12 months from the applicant's required renewal date shall pay the full registration fee. An applicant applying to reinstate or reactivate a lapsed registration or certification within 12 months from the applicant's required renewal date, pursuant to rule 193F—9.1(543D), shall pay half the required renewal fee plus the applicable reactivation or reinstatement fee. An applicant applying to reinstate or reactivate a lapsed registration or certification more than 12 months from the applicant's required renewal date shall pay the full renewal fee plus the applicable reactivation or reinstatement fee.

[ARC 5237C, IAB 10/21/20, effective 11/25/20]