

191—18.7(523I,566A) Annual reports and perpetual care cemetery permits. For purposes of assisting cemeteries in filing annual reports and permit applications, the administrator may generate computer-generated forms with information filled in, as contained in the administrator's records, to the extent possible. However, the cemetery must correct any incorrect information before filing the report or application with the administrator.