

481—9.3(815) Claims submitted by a private attorney. The department shall process and forward for payment claims submitted by a private attorney for court-appointed attorney fees and costs for legal representation of an indigent if the following conditions are met:

1. The claim has been approved for payment by the state public defender.
2. The claim complies with requirements of the department of revenue.

Claims that do not comply with this rule will be returned by the department to the state public defender.

The department will submit timely claims to the department of revenue for processing and payment. Claims that are not timely claims will be submitted to the state appeal board for processing and payment.
