

561—2.15(17A,22) Other groups of records. This rule describes groups of records maintained by the agency other than record systems as defined in rule 2.2(17A,22). These records are routinely available to the public. However, the agencies' files of these records may contain confidential information. In addition, some records may contain information about individuals. Records are stored on paper, microfilm, microfiche, and, in some cases, automated data processing systems.

2.15(1) Rule making. Rule-making records may contain information about individuals making written or oral comments on proposed rules. This information is collected pursuant to Iowa Code section 17A.4.

2.15(2) Commission records. Agendas, minutes and materials presented to the environmental protection commission and the natural resource commission are available from the office of the director, except these records concerning closed sessions which are confidential under Iowa Code section 21.5(4). Commission records contain information about people who participate in meetings. This information is collected pursuant to Iowa Code section 21.3.

2.15(3) Publications. News releases, annual reports, Iowa Conservationist, project reports, agency newsletters, etc., are available from the department offices for public information. Brochures describing various department programs are available at local offices of the department. Department news releases, project reports, the Conservationist, and newsletters may contain information about individuals, including department staff or members of the commission or committees.

2.15(4) Statistical reports. Periodic reports for various department programs are available from the department offices for public information.

2.15(5) Grants or loans. Records on persons and institutions receiving grants or loans are available through the institutions, also for public information. The records may contain information about employees of a grantee.

2.15(6) Published materials. The agency uses many legal and technical publications in its work. The public may inspect these publications upon request. Some of these materials may be protected by copyright law.

2.15(7) Policy manuals. The agency employees' manual, containing the policies and procedures for programs administered by the department, is available in every office of the department. Policy manuals do not contain information about individuals.

2.15(8) All other records that are not exempted from disclosure by law. The department maintains a variety of records which do not generally contain information pertaining to named individuals.

2.15(9) All other records that are not exempted from disclosure by law.
