

641—155.3(125) Type of licenses.155.3(1) Issuance of licenses.

a. Licenses may be issued for up to three years. A license may be renewed for one, two, or three years. An initial license may be issued for 270 days. A license issued for 270 days shall not be renewed or extended.

b. Licenses shall expire one or two calendar years from the date of issue, and a renewal of the license shall be issued only on application.

c. The renewal of a one-year or two-year license shall be contingent upon demonstration of continued compliance with licensure standards and in accordance with the licensure weighting report criteria.

d. The renewal of a three-year license shall be contingent upon demonstration of substantial continued compliance with licensure standards and in accordance with the licensure weighting report criteria or continuation in deemed status.

e. Failure to apply for renewal of the license within 30 days after the expiration date shall result in immediate termination of license and require reapplication.

155.3(2) Corrective action. Following the issuance of a license, the treatment program may be requested by the board to provide a written plan of corrective action and to bring into compliance all areas found in noncompliance during the on-site visit. The corrective action plan shall be placed in the program's permanent file with the division and used as reference during future on-site inspections.
