

645—10.9(17A,22) Disclosures without the consent of the subject.

10.9(1) Open records are routinely disclosed without the consent of the subject.

10.9(2) To the extent allowed by law, disclosure of confidential records occurs without the consent of the subject. Following are instances where disclosure, if lawful, will generally occur without consent of the subject:

- a.* For a routine use as defined in rule 10.10(17A,22) or in the notice for a particular record system.
- b.* To a recipient who has provided the board with advance written assurance that the record will be used solely as a statistical research or reporting record, provided that the record is transferred in a form that does not identify the subject.
- c.* Investigative information in the possession of a licensing board or its employees or agents which relates to licensee discipline may be disclosed to appropriate licensing authorities within this state, the appropriate licensing authority in another state, the District of Columbia, or territory or country in which the licensee is licensed or has applied for a license. If the investigative information in the possession of a licensing board or its employees or agents indicates a crime has been committed, the information shall be reported to the proper law enforcement agency.
- d.* To the legislative services agency under Iowa Code section 2A.3.
- e.* Disclosures in the course of employee disciplinary proceedings.
- f.* In response to a court order or subpoena.
