

871—42.13(22,84A) Personally identifiable information. This rule describes the nature and extent of personally identifiable information which is collected, maintained, and retrieved by the agency by personal identifier in record systems as defined in rule 42.1(22,84A). For each record system, this rule describes the legal authority for the collection of that information, the means of storage of that information and indicates whether a data processing system matches, collates, or permits the comparison of personally identifiable information in one record system with personally identifiable information in another record system.

42.13(1) The record systems maintained by the agency are:

a. Labor market records. These records are collected from employing units under an agreement with the United States Department of Labor, Bureau of Labor Statistics, for the purposes of analyzing and distributing general labor market information including current employment statistics, employment by occupation statistics, local area unemployment statistics, wage and hour statistics, and permanent mass layoff and plant closing statistics. These records are stored in an automated data processing system and may be retrieved by a personal identifier.

b. County economic development survey records. These records are collected from employing units and individuals under an agreement with the department of workforce development, for the purposes of providing local economic development groups with statistical information on the number and characteristics of individuals available for employment within a county as well as providing employee wage by occupation and benefit information. These records are stored in an automated data processing system and may be retrieved by a personal identifier.

c. Personnel files. The agency maintains files containing information about employees, families and dependents, and applicants for positions with the agency. The files include payroll records, biographical information, medical information relating to disability, performance reviews and evaluations, disciplinary information, information required for tax withholding, information concerning employee benefits, affirmative action reports, and other information concerning the employer-employee relationship. Some of this information is confidential under Iowa Code subsection 22.7(11). Some of these records are stored in an automated data processing system and may be retrieved by a personal identifier.

d. Other groups of records routinely available for public inspection. This paragraph describes groups of records maintained by the agency other than in a record system as defined in rule 42.1(22,84A):

(1) Rule making. Rule-making records may contain information about persons making written or oral comments on proposed rules. This information is collected pursuant to Iowa Code section 17A.4. These records are not stored in an automated data processing system and may not be retrieved by a personal identifier.

(2) Committee records. Agendas, minutes, and materials presented to the department of workforce development coordinating committee are available from the custodian, except those records concerning closed sessions which are exempt from disclosure under Iowa Code subsection 21.5(4). Coordinating committee records contain information about persons who participate in meetings. This information is collected pursuant to Iowa Code section 21.3 and subsection 84A.2(4). These records are not stored in an automated data processing system and may not be retrieved by a personal identifier.

(3) Publications. News releases, annual reports, project reports, agency newsletters, etc., are available at the administrative office of the agency. Brochures describing various agency programs are available at the administrative office of the agency. Agency news releases, project reports, and newsletters may contain information about persons, including agency staff or members of agency committees. These records are not stored on an automated data processing system and may not be retrieved by a personal identifier.

(4) Statistical reports. Periodic reports of labor market information are available from the agency. Statistical reports do not contain information about persons.

(5) Appeal decisions and advisory opinions. All final orders, decisions and opinions are open to the public except for information that is confidential according to paragraph "g" of subrule 42.12(2). These records may contain information about a person collected under the authority of Iowa Code section 84A.1.

(6) Published materials. The agency uses many legal and technical publications in its work. The public may inspect these publications upon request. Some of these materials may be protected by copyright law.

(7) Policy manuals. The agency employees' manual, containing the policies and procedures for programs administered by the agency, is available in the administrative office of the agency. Subscriptions to all or part of the employees' manual are available at the cost of production and handling. Requests for subscription information should be addressed to the custodian of the record, Department of Workforce Development, 1000 East Grand Avenue, Des Moines, Iowa 50319. Policy manuals do not contain information about persons.

(8) All other records that are not exempted from disclosure by law.

42.13(2) All data processing systems used by the agency permit the comparison of personally identifiable information in one record system with personally identifiable information in another record system.
