

141—3.12 (2C,22) Personally identifiable information. This rule describes the nature and extent of personally identifiable information which is collected, maintained, and retrieved by the agency by personal identifier in the record systems and the means by which that information is stored. Unless otherwise stated, the authority to collect the information is provided by Iowa Code chapter 2C and the statutes governing the subject matter of the record. The agency maintains record systems that include case files, litigation files, personnel files, and applicant files.

3.12(1) Case files. Case files contain information related to complaints and information requests, stored in either paper form or electronically in a case management system. These files contain names and locations of persons who contacted the agency, methods of contact, agency staff members who handled the case files, the dates the files were opened and closed, the subjects of the contacts, and the agencies involved. The files also include notes and memoranda of agency staff members and may include research materials, correspondence, and documents provided by complainants or agencies involved in the complaint. These files are confidential pursuant to Iowa Code section 2C.8.

3.12(2) Litigation files. The litigation files contain information regarding litigation or anticipated litigation, which includes judicial and administrative proceedings. These files include pleadings, briefs, depositions, discovery materials, docket sheets, general correspondence, attorney-client correspondence, documents, memoranda, investigative information, research materials, witness information, attorney's notes, information compiled under the direction of the attorney, and case management records. These files may be stored in paper or electronic form. These files contain materials which are confidential as attorney work product and attorney-client communications or which are confidential under Iowa Code section 2C.8 or other applicable law, or because of a court order.

3.12(3) Personnel files. The personnel files contain information about the employees in the agency. These files include payroll records, information required for tax withholding, biographical information, medical information relating to disability, information concerning employee benefits, performance evaluations and reviews, disciplinary information, and other information concerning employer-employee relationships. These records may be stored in paper or electronic form. Some information in these records is confidential under Iowa Code section 22.7.

3.12(4) Applicant files. The applicant files contain information about applicants for positions with the agency. These files include biographical information, correspondence, equal employment opportunity and affirmative action data, and other preemployment materials. These files may be stored in paper or electronic form. Some information in these files is confidential under Iowa Code section 22.7 or other applicable law.
