

441—53.7(79GA, HF732) Fraudulent practices relating to the rent subsidy program. A person is guilty of a fraudulent practice if that person with the intent to gain financial assistance to which that person is not eligible, knowingly makes or causes to be made a false statement or representation or knowingly fails to report to an employee of the department any change in circumstances affecting that person's eligibility for financial assistance. In cases of found fraudulent practices, the department may require repayment of the amount that was received by the recipient while ineligible as a condition of continued participation in the rent subsidy program.
