

265—5.4(16) Period and scope of debarment.

5.4(1) Debarment will be for a period commensurate with the acts or omissions of the person to be debarred. A person will not be debarred for an initial period that exceeds three years. The authority may impose an additional period of debarment if, prior to the expiration of an initial period of debarment, the authority determines an additional period of debarment is warranted.

5.4(2) A person may be debarred from one or more authority programs or transactions or from all authority programs and transactions.
