

185—4.37(123) Business as usual on election days. Licensees and permittees may sell alcoholic liquor, wine, or beer during regular hours on days local and national elections are held because present Iowa law does not restrict the sale of liquor, wine, and beer on election days.

This rule is intended to implement Iowa Code subsection 123.21(3).