

701—24.11(272D) Withdrawal of certificate of noncompliance. Once it has issued a certificate of noncompliance, the unit shall issue a withdrawal of the certificate of noncompliance only if any of the following applies:

1. The unit or the court finds a mistake in the identity of the person;
2. The unit or the court finds a mistake in the amount owed;
3. The obligor enters into a written agreement with the unit to pay the liability owed, the obligor complies with an existing written agreement, or the obligor pays the total amount of liability owed; or
4. The unit finds that a hardship exists, such as catastrophic illness or state or federally declared disasters.

[Editorial change: IAC Supplement 11/2/22]