

701—24.7(272D) Issuance of certificate of noncompliance. If the person fails to appear at the conference, the unit shall issue a certificate of noncompliance. If the person does not timely request a conference or pay the amount of liability owed within 20 days of the notice's mailing, the unit shall issue a certificate of noncompliance. However, the unit will not issue a certificate of noncompliance if:

1. The unit finds a mistake in the identity of the person;
2. The unit finds a mistake in determining the amount of the liability;
3. The unit determines the amount of the liability is less than $1,000;
4. The obligor pays the amount due or enters into an acceptable payment plan;
5. The obligor is in bankruptcy; or
6. The unit finds additional time is required for the person to comply.

[Editorial change: IAC Supplement 11/2/22]