

701—25.17(421) Names to be published. Names selected for release for publication shall be based on the records of the facility. The director may not include the names of persons who owe less than $100 or the threshold amounts determined by the director. The threshold amounts may vary by the debt types being collected by the central collection facility. The director may withhold names from publication if in the director's opinion publication would not assist in the collection of the debt.

The director will not release for publication names of parties who have made arrangements with the facility to pay the outstanding debt and are current in liquidating the debt based on the arrangements made.

[Editorial change: IAC Supplement 11/2/22]