

191—104.9(523A) Proof of completion of continuing education requirements. A sales agent is required to maintain a record of all completed continuing education courses by keeping for four years the original certificates of completion and a description and outline of the course attended.