

282—14.118(272) Requirements for a Class D occupational license. A two-year Class D occupational license may be issued to an applicant who has not met all of the experience requirements for the provisional occupational license.