

761—615.30(321) Revocation for out-of-state offense. The department may revoke an Iowa resident's license when the department is notified by another state that the person committed an offense in that state which, if committed in Iowa, would be grounds for revocation. The notice may indicate either a conviction or a final administrative decision. The period of the revocation shall be the same as if the offense had occurred in Iowa.

This rule is intended to implement Iowa Code section 321.205.
