

199—32.6(476) Insufficient filing. The board may reject for filing within 30 days any proposal for reorganization that does not contain sufficient information for the board to evaluate the proposal for reorganization. The board shall fully describe any deficiencies in a reorganization plan which is rejected for filing.