

441—76.5(249A) Enrollment through SSI. Upon receipt of a referral from the SSA indicating that an individual has been approved for SSI, the department will treat the referral as an application for medical assistance and will process the application as if received directly by the department. The SSI recipient may be required to provide additional information when necessary to determine Medicaid eligibility. The SSI recipient may be required to attend an interview to clarify information.

[ARC 9702C, IAB 11/12/25, effective 1/1/26]