

543—3.3(25) Investigation. The special assistant attorney general assigned will investigate a general claim. The special assistant attorney general may administer oaths and may take testimony and conduct discovery in accordance with the Iowa Rules of Civil Procedure, Division V. The special assistant attorney general may compel the attendance of witnesses and certify to any district court for contempt. All information from the investigation will be included with the report to the board.

[ARC 9697C, IAB 11/12/25, effective 12/17/25]