

111—11.2(216B) Services. In addition to appropriate vocational rehabilitation services enumerated in rule 111—10.5(216B), independent living rehabilitation services may include, but are not limited to: teaching alternative techniques of blindness; guidance and counseling; orientation and mobility training; referral; recreational activities; provision and instruction in the use of telecommunication, sensory and other technological aids and devices; and provision of technical assistance through consultation with health care providers and other agencies and organizations who serve blind persons.

Joint planning between the eligible individual and the staff will be employed in the development of an independent living rehabilitation plan (ILRP) in order to identify independent living objectives and services that will be most beneficial in achieving an eligible individual's independence. Eligible individuals will be given the option of waiving the right to a formal, detailed ILRP and may choose to simply list their independent living objectives.
